Use of BIOS Project “WebCore” in product development

The WebCore, currently under the license “BIOS-5-EDF” can be used in product development as regulated for BIOS 4 in CD 04505 (“Handling OSS”, Annex 2) and CD 03160 (“Tax and Foreign Trade rules of Software and Digital Business Model”).

BIOS-5-EDF deviates from above the BIOS 4 regulations only in explicitly allowing the distribution of the BIOS assets in source form to any third party with the present copyright information.
